Valedictorian

Margie Peak, valedictorian, has finished four years of hard work resulting in a 1.21 average.

Margie entered Bend schools in the first grade and finished her primary schooling here with the exception of the sixth grade, which she spent in Wyoming. She plans to finish her education at Oregon State, where she will major in Home Economics.

Margie has been one of the most active students in the Senior class. She is president of Girls' League and is an active member of Pep Club, Torch Honor, Lettergirls, tumbling team, Pine Murmurs staff, choir, band, orchestra, and also has taken part in one of the student body plays. She was honored by being chosen as one of the representatives to Girls' State.

Margie is known for her cheerfulness, fairness, great dependability, and sincerity, for which the senior class has reason to be proud of her.

Salutatorian

Pat Blakely, with a close second to that of the Valedictorian's grade average, finished four years of high school with an average of 1.28.

She entered Bend schools twelve years ago, and has attended them ever since. For her higher education, Pat plans to attend Lewis & Clark college in Portland.

Pat has been outstanding in taking part in an unusual number of activities, and working hard at each one. She is a member of Pep Club, Lettergirls, Torch Honor, tumbling team, Drum and bugle, Pine Murmurs staff, orchestra, choir, band, sextette, and rally squad. She has been student body paymaster, chairman of the high school radio program, and one of the majorettes. She was also chosen this year as queen of the Junior-Senior Prom, an honor which was well deserved.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The student council, composed of the above students, has had a very successful year, beginning with registration in September. Each year the student council is in charge of registration with the help of the teachers.

The two main projects for this year's council were finishing the cafeteria, and re-decorating the council room.

The student council tried to break the feudal barrier between Bend and Redmond by sponsoring a dance in the big gym; later on, Bend and Redmond each gave an exchange assembly.

A large banquet was held at the first of the year, and various other banquets were held throughout the year. An inter-council banquet between Bend and Redmond was held at the Pine Tavern on March 22.

The 26th of March the student council presented another dance called the "Ma, Pa, and Me Party," which was very well liked by both students and parents. It proved to be one of the best dances of the year.

Concluding its active year, the student council sponsored the State Council Convention here May 1st and 2nd. Cities from all over Oregon were represented by approximately 220 students. Don Denning, Bend president, acted as state president, and Charleen Dahlin, Bend secretary, acted as state secretary.

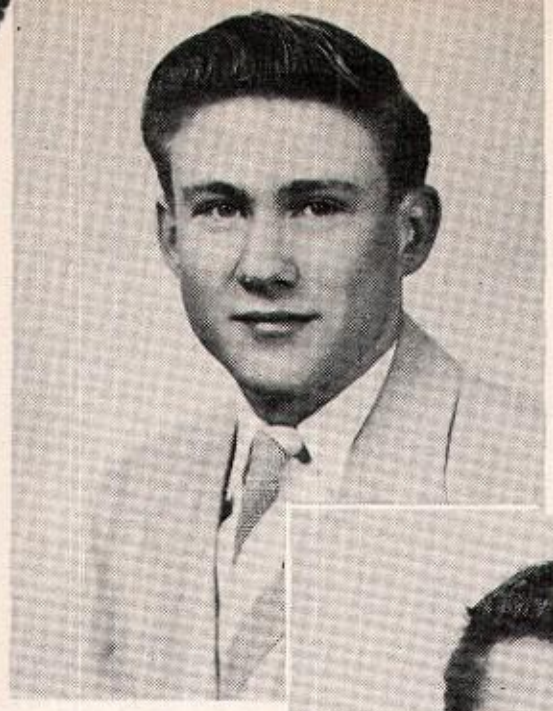
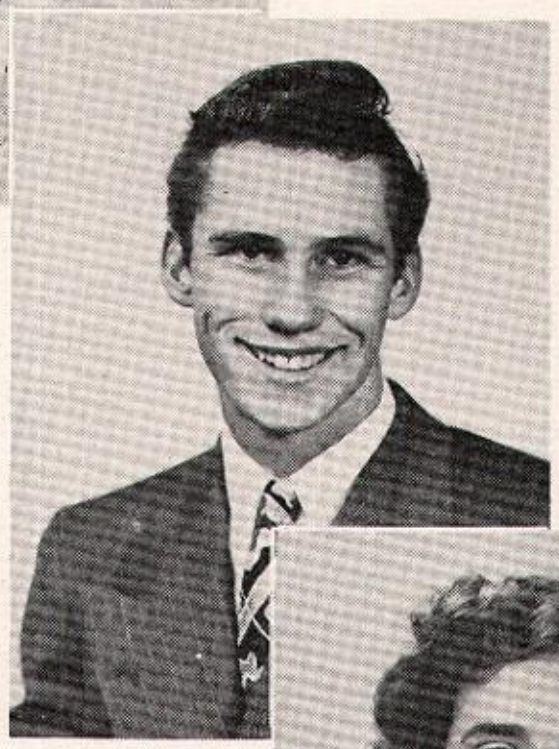
CLASSES

SENIORS





The class of 1949, led by senior class president, Tom Henderson, experienced one of the most successful years of its high school career.

The 49'ers held various activities throughout the year, such as a senior football dance, following the end of football season, a dime dance after the Salem game, and a senior assembly.

In athletics, this year's senior class could be matched by none other. Doing well in all three major sports—football, basketball, and track, the 49'ers' teams can be matched with almost any teams in the state.

Although the senior class was the smallest class in the school with an enrollment of 135, it proved to be one of the greatest to graduate from Bend High School.

JUNIORS

The junior class, under the leadership of their president, Marvin Mix, proved to be one of the more active classes in school with a series of well-sponsored dances.

The "Turkey Trot" dance was one of the best-planned dances of the school year, and other dances sponsored were well organized.

The Junior-Senior Prom given in the Elks Hall, was the main highlight of the year with vice-president Larry Standifer as general chairman.

The juniors proved to be the loudest class in school by winning the class competition cup twice in one year. Yell leaders were Gene Kiel, Nadine Pepin, and Diane Newland.

Junior class officers are: president, Marvin Mix; vice-president, Larry Standifer; secretary, Maary Ann Kiesow; treasurer, Janis Jappert. Class advisors for the year are Miss Morris and Mr. Rich.

Junior class enrollment was next to the smallest with 138.

SOPHOMORES

Bobbie Lee Gilbert, the first girl president of the sophomore class, led her class through a very successful year.

This year's sophomore class sponsored two dances, which were very successful.

They have planned a project to keep the halls clean. Heading the committee were: Bobbie Gilbert, Reggie Halligan, Audrey Bailey, Ronnie Rollins, Helen Elster, Kent Hogan, and Roberta Fredenhagen.

Class officers are: president, Bobbie Lee Gilbert; vice-president, Reggie Halligan; secretary-treasurer, Mierley Fordham, and student council representative, Jim Wade. Mrs. Steinhauser and Mr. Nicholson were class advisors.

FRESHMEN

The freshman class, under its capable president, Jack Sheffold, came through a proud and successful year with a large enrollment of 173, the largest of any class in school.

Although the freshmen only sponsored one dance this year, they show signs of a strong class in years to come.

This class was led through the year by Jack Sheffold, president; vice-president, Virginia Wise; secretary, Duveen Kaufman; treasurer, Carolyn Jones, and student council representative, Christine Ryman.

Miss O'Leary and Mr. Gettman are class advisors.

EIGHTH GRADE

The eighth graders were led through their first year by their able president, Volney Sigmund.

The lower classmen came through their initiation with flying colors and no broken bones, this year. They seemed to enjoy it as much as the seniors did initiating them.

They had an eighth and ninth grade dime dance, and an eighth grade roller-skating party.

Their officers for the year were: Volney Sidmund, president; Bill Baer, Jr., vice-president; Stanley Crawford, secretary; Ronald Walker, treasurer, and Maurice Rasmussen, student council representative.

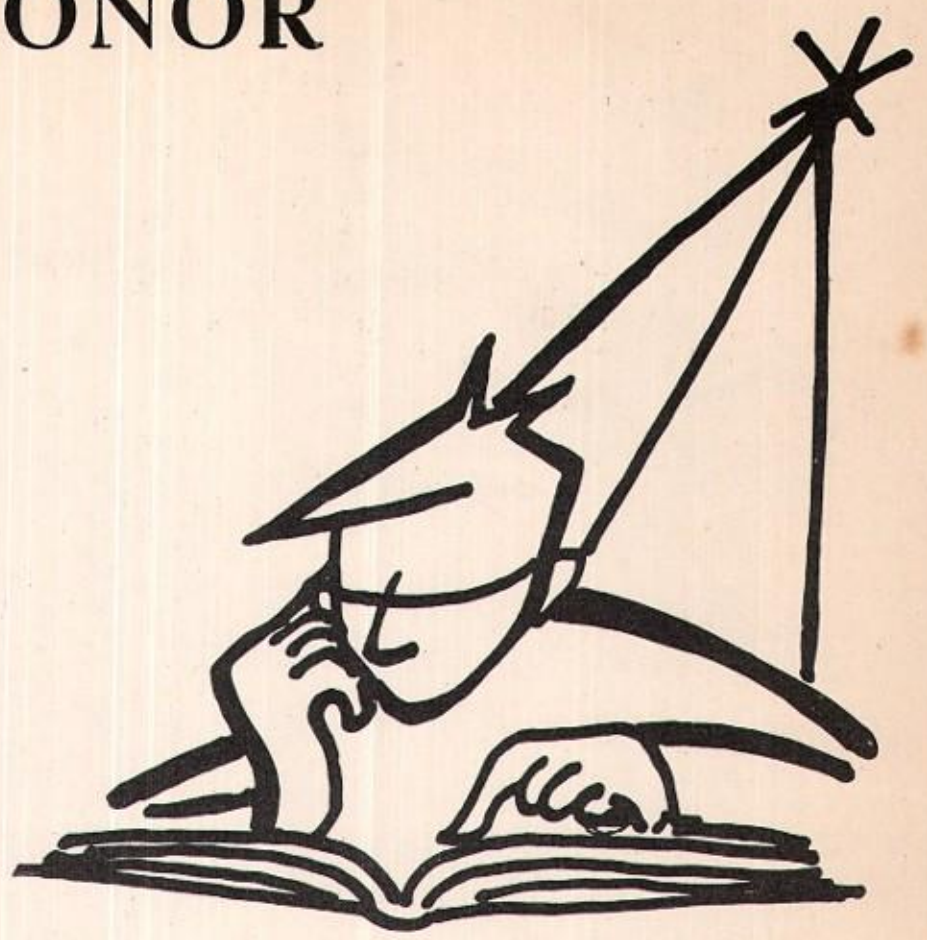
TORCH HONOR



The Torch Honor, which is made up of students with the highest scholastic standing in the school, completed another highly successful year. This local chapter of the national honorary society is chiefly a service organization.

An initiation banquet in September opened the clubs' activities. The banquet was held in the school cafeteria with the new members providing the "entertainment."

Another item on their 1948-49 calendar was the annual Sadie Hawkins Dance in the fall. For the Torch Honor assembly, a travel film was shown.

Ivan Burton led the club and Mr. Ruth was the advisor.

PINE MURMERS

Under the leadership of Bruce Longballa, Bend High School's bi-weekly paper, the Pine Murmurs, was enlarged from a six to a seven column publication. At the close of the school year a total of 16 issues had been printed.

Bruce was aided throughout the year by feature editor, Dolores Dyer; news editor, Doris Drost, and sports editor, Tom Henderson. Margie Peak acted as a special page editor.

Joan Tilden, business manager, and Barbara Mize, advertising manager, served as heads of the business staff. Mr. Tate is advisor for this journalism group.

The Lettermen gave two dime dances, a student body dance, and joined forces with the Pep Club for a banquet in March. Climaxing their year was a Lettermen banquet and the annual spring initiation of new members.

J. G.'s

The only organization which is made up entirely of eighth and ninth graders, the J. G.'s are really junior lettergirls. Any girl is eligible to join the club and, upon earning 50 points, is entitled to a letter. At the conclusion of the freshman year, any J. G. with 50 points graduates to the Lettergirls' Club. Miss Gerke is the advisor for the J. G.'s.

Members participate in after-school sports such as basketball, volleyball, softball and tumbling. Outside of school they take part in such activities as skating, bowling, hiking, and tennis. This club helps the lower classmen adjust to the social life of Bend High, and at the end of the year a cup is given to the outstanding member of the organization.

BEAR'S PAW

Primarily a service organization, the Bear's Paw performed the regular duties of preparing and patrolling the football field during the fall. It was also their responsibility to put up and take down the bleachers at Bruin Field, and rope off the field before games.

Under the supervision of Mr. Nicholson and the leadership of Leroy Sherman, the members patroled the gym and took tickets at the door during basketball season. Miscellaneous duties of the club include checking the rooms during fire drills and reporting any open windows or doors; also placing and removing the mats for the tumbling team whenever they performed.

F. C. O.

A traditional initiation and picnic at Shevlin Park started the F. C. O. activities for the year. In November the Future Craftsmen of Oregon joined with the T. I. C. in a banquet at the Pine Tavern, and the following month the club held an ice skating party at Mayfield Pond. A spring outing on May 13, 14, and 15 at Metolius concluded a very successful year for both the members and their advisor, Mr. Johnson.

All Future Craftsmen have had experience working on cars at some time during the year. Members of the club and faculty are privileged to take their cars to the shop for repairs. The boys, under the leadership of Bob Hanshew, also made fishing poles for some of the teachers and club members.

T. I. C.

Jim Dietz led the T. I. C. during the first semester, and Barton Garred was president of this club during the last half of the year.

This Trades and Industries Club is composed of boys who work part time; its purpose is to prepare students for a trade or occupation while encouraging social activities.

The T. I. C. held two initiations, one at the beginning of each semester. At the first initiation, held in the cafeteria, the old members successfully initiated several times their number of new members. Mr. Burgess, the club advisor, was chaperone, and everyone had a square meal, meaning the initiates. Other annual events of the club were the employer-employee banquet in November and the chicken fry in the spring.

Although small in membership, the Science Club is an active organization. The purpose of this club is to interest students in science and science projects. The membership is limited to students who are interested in doing scientific experiments not offered in the regular classes.

The main projects which these "future scientists" have undertaken have included experiments in the field of soil testing and static electricity. Under the instruction of Mr. Keith and Mr. Nicholson the members have also taken up astronomy in their after-school meetings.

The officers of this science organization are: Dan Horstkotte, president; Ed Sullivan, vice-president, and Henry Herbring, secretary-treasurer.

Led by Jerene Ranger, the Pep Club started its year with an initiation downtown, followed by a banquet for the initiates in the cafeteria.

The services of this club included selling hotdogs and candy at all local football games and ushering at both the football and basketball games.

A drill team, which promises to become one of the main activities of the club in the future, was organized this year. The team was scheduled to drill at the half of the Bend-Eugene basketball game, but because of its postponement they were unable to perform. Adding the final touches to the year's activities was the fun-provoking Pep Club-Lettermen Banquet held in the spring. June Clark acted as general chairman for the Pep Club at this banquet.

F. H. A.

The purpose of the F. H. A. is to further the work of home economics, to train its members for leadership, and to develop in its members ideals befitting American citizens and homemakers of tomorrow.

The club started its year by reorganizing its point system. At the beginning of the year upper-class members visited classrooms, explaining F. H. A. to prospective members, and on September 29, the new girls were duly initiated.

The Bend F. H. A. chapter acted as hostess club on November 6, when the Redmond and Madras clubs came over. And then on November 8, F. H. A. began its biggest project—serving hot lunches in the cafeteria. From a small, careful beginning it grew rapidly, until as many as 150 were eating in the cafeteria. Gradually the menus were enlarged until the girls were serving one hot dish, pastry or hot dogs, milk, jello, fruit, candy, and an occasional experiment with baked goods such as brownies. Doris Drost had charge of this project.

On Valentine's Day, the girls sent hand-made favors to Sunset Home, and a CARE package overseas.

Highlights of the spring were the arrival of sweaters for those members earning sufficient points, and the state convention in Corvallis to which the club sent two delegates—Beverley Carter and Jackie Nystrom. Marjorie Davidson led the club and Miss Rydberg and Miss Schoeler acted as advisors.

DRAMATICS

With a total enrollment of 23 members, the Dramatics Club concluded its year with a picnic in the park. In previous years the club has given a puppet show at the school carnival, but since there was no carnival this year, its chief activity was the presentation of an assembly in February. At that time members gave a play, "Elmer Cleans Up," followed by a pantomime called "Innocence Triumphs."

Led by Keith Tucker, the club gave several radio skits, attended plays in this region and ordered club pins.

Membership in this club is limited to students who have taken part in at least one student body play. The advisor is Miss Grace Mary Linn.

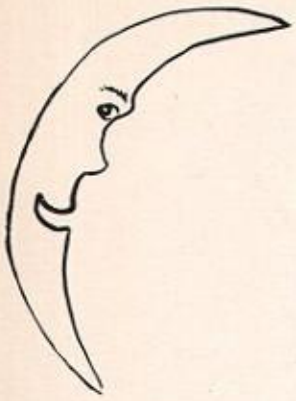
PROM COURT



The annual junior-senior prom was held in the B. P. O. E. ballroom Friday, April 29.

The prom court this year consisted of Pat Blakely, above, queen; Rose Jackson, maid of honor, and, reading counter-clockwise below are Joan Tilden, June Clark, Betty Crane, and Ella Sterling, princesses.

The theme, "Moonlight and Roses," was carried out throughout the dance with an imitation rose arch and a large yellow moon.

Committee chairman was Larry Standifer, who appointed the following heads: Marcia Skjersaa, refreshments; Gary Jerome, music; Diane Newland, decorations; Diane McKenzie, entertainment; Dick Carlson, advertisement; Georganne Winslow, programs; Kathy Farr, invitations; Peggy Terwilligar, queen committee, and Tom Niebergall, clean-up.

Music for the prom was provided by Fred Dallas and his orchestra.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served by Barbara Ream and Marilyn Waterman. Entertainment consisted of Judy, Jackie, and Jan Bowlus, a tumbling act, and several other numbers.

The faculty and parents of the committee heads and court were guests of honor; they also acted as chaperones.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The senior choir with 70 members and the A Cappella Choir with a membership of 65 performed frequently throughout the year. Under the direction of Mr. Don Pence the choirs were heard at a combined church Thanksgiving service, the annual Christmas assembly, Armistice assembly, and many service clubs. Besides soloists and ensembles taking part in several music festivals, the choirs appeared in the Oratorio Elijah. New choir robes added to the organization's appearance at all their programs. Officers for the year were: president, Mickey Sullivan; vice-president, Ralph Sutton, and secretary-treasurer, Jerene Ranger.

Always on hand to play for local football and basketball games and at pep assemblies, the 52-piece band made a trip to Klamath Falls for the Armistice day game. The band also appeared in a Christmas and spring concert. Officers were Ken Johnston, president; Bill McCallum, vice-president, and Marcia Skjersaa, secretary-treasurer. Mr. Pence is the director of the band.

Organized this year was a nine-piece dance band. After Fred Dallas assisted the boys in getting started, the group played at school dances, the Lions' Club Sweetheart Party, the Kenwood Carnival, and the Redmond exchange assembly.

Under the direction of Mrs. Nicholson, the orchestra had a total of 40 members. This group played between acts of the student body play and for the Christmas program.

The junior choir and band, both with large enrollments, also completed a successful year. The choir sang at the Christmas program, and the band played at the spring concert and the grade school football and basketball jamborees. Both organizations took part in a festival at Redmond, and both are directed by Mr. Haugen.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The "Battling" Bend Lava Bears had a good season, winning six games and losing three. Under the able coaching of Hank Nilsen and "Bud" Robertson, and using the T formation, Bend placed second in the Big Six League.

September 17, Bend defeated Redmond in the traditional opening battle.

September 24, Bend rolled back the heavier and more experienced Corvallis Spartans in the first home game.

October 1, the Bears moved to the top of the Big Six League in defeating the Axemen in a hard fought game in Eugene.Gillis and Symons carried the ball for touchdowns. All conversion attempts were blocked. Griffith and Symons shone on offense and Hogland, Gillis, and Robison stood out on defense.

October 8, proved to be a sad night for Salem as the Bears blanked the Vikings to tighten their Big Six lead. Gillis packed the ball for two tallies, and Sutton scored on a quarterback sneak. Brown played a great game.

October 15, Bend played good ball against the tough Albany eleven, but lost the Big Six lead as they failed to find pay dirt more than once.

October 22, the Bears stomped Springfield in a valley fog battle that was hardly discernible from the sidelines. Punts and passes were hard to find, but fumbles were at a minimum. Gillis, Wade, and Stevens scored from the ground for Bend. Gillis kicked an extra point.

October 29, the "Battling" Bears played the best ball game of the season against Medford but would not "rack" when the chips were down. Bend outplayed the Black Tornado from start to finish but failed to stop Medford's only two comebacks, which cost Bend the game. Gillis punched over for Bend's only touchdown.

November 5, Bend trimmed a fighting Prineville squad to the tune of 45 to 12, with the Bears scoring two or more touchdowns in each period of the game. Wade, halfback, scored three times and Gillis, Denning, Brown, and Longballa hit pay soil on running plays.

November 11, the fighting Bend club ended the season by dropping a thrilling 14 to 12 decision to the Pelicans in Klamath Falls. Both teams really battled in the sultry heat of the afternoon, but extra point failures proved to be Bend's downfall. Longballa's passing was at its best. Longballa scored on a quarterback sneak and later shot a pass to fullback, Gillis, who scored the other touchdown for Bend. On both occasions Gillis's conversion attempt failed. Sutton excelled as defensive quarterback.

Phil Gillis, fullback and defensive end, and Doug Hogland, tackle, were chosen on the state allstar team, which will meet the Portland all stars in the Shrine benefit game scheduled for August. Gillis and Hogland were also picked for the Big Six League first team. Gillis received the Lions Club Defensive trophy and was leading team scorer and high point in Big Six standings. For team scoring Gillis had 68 points, 10 t.d.'s and 8 extra points.

Thru the season the Bears piled up a total of 171 points compared to 80 for the opponents.

As a summary Bend's Grid club of '48 was a hard hitting, high spirited team that always battled till the final gun sounded. And a good bunch of fellows they are, too.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

The Bend Lava Bears breezed through a tough basketball season and posted one of the best records in the state — 26 games won and only four lost. Bend lost only one game in the Central Oregon Conference, to Redmond, to tie for the conference toga, and were co-champions in the Big Six, being beaten only once by Salem. The Bears won the District number 3 tourney and went on to the State tournament in Eugene where they dumped a strong Hillsboro quintet in the finals to win third place in the state. Doug Hogland sparked the Bears at State and was picked on the All-State first five. Bob Hawes grabbed a posiiton on the second All-State team. In the Big Six, Hawes was on the first All-Star team and Hogland on the second. Mickey Sullivan and Al Christensen were voted on the third team.

Bend opened the season by winning the jamboree at Redmond, winning from University High in a two-game series, defeating Lakeview and Burns in league play and edging Redmond in a "King's X" tilt. Bend then traveled to the coast where they were beaten by Roseburg, and the next night by Marshfield in overtime. The Bears retaliated by ousting Marshfield in the second game and going to to win 11 straight games, including four in the Big Six league and six in the Mid-Oregon conference. Redmond caught fire and beat the Bears for their only loss in Central Oregon. Bend won three games and then took a low score from Salem for their only defeat in the Big Six. Three more valley teams went down and Bend tore through the District tournament, leaving another four defeated t e a m s in their wake.

Moving on to the State tournament in Eugene, Bend walloped Scappoose 61-40, and Tillamook 51-42. In the semi-finals, Marshfield toppled the Bears by a score of 60-51. In the preliminary to the title clash the Lava Bears came through to down Hillsboro 50 to 47, and bring home the third place trophy.

At the first of the basketball season, Coach Russ Acheson stated that the Lava Bear hoop prospects were good. Acheson proved his point by developing one of the best maple court teams Bend High has ever had.

The Lava Bears cinder squad of '48, with 12 returning lettermen, had an average season, winning five meets and losing four. Bend's main accomplishments of the year were defending the Big Six crown for the third successive year, taking the Central Oregon championship away from Redmond, and winning the District 2 meet.

The Bend aggregation started off the fireworks by winning a 3-way meet, defeating Madras and Prineville on the Cowboys' track. For the second encounter the Bears trekked to Eugene to take part in the Hayward Relays. Medford ran roughshod over all opposition, but Bend was able to cop 21 points for fifth place. Next came a dual meet with Redmond at Bend where the Bears swarmed the Panthers to chalk up the second victory.In a meet with Redmond, Prineville, and Madras, in which several key men were held back for the Klamath Falls meet, Bend took its second loss as it was edged by Redmond in a close battle.

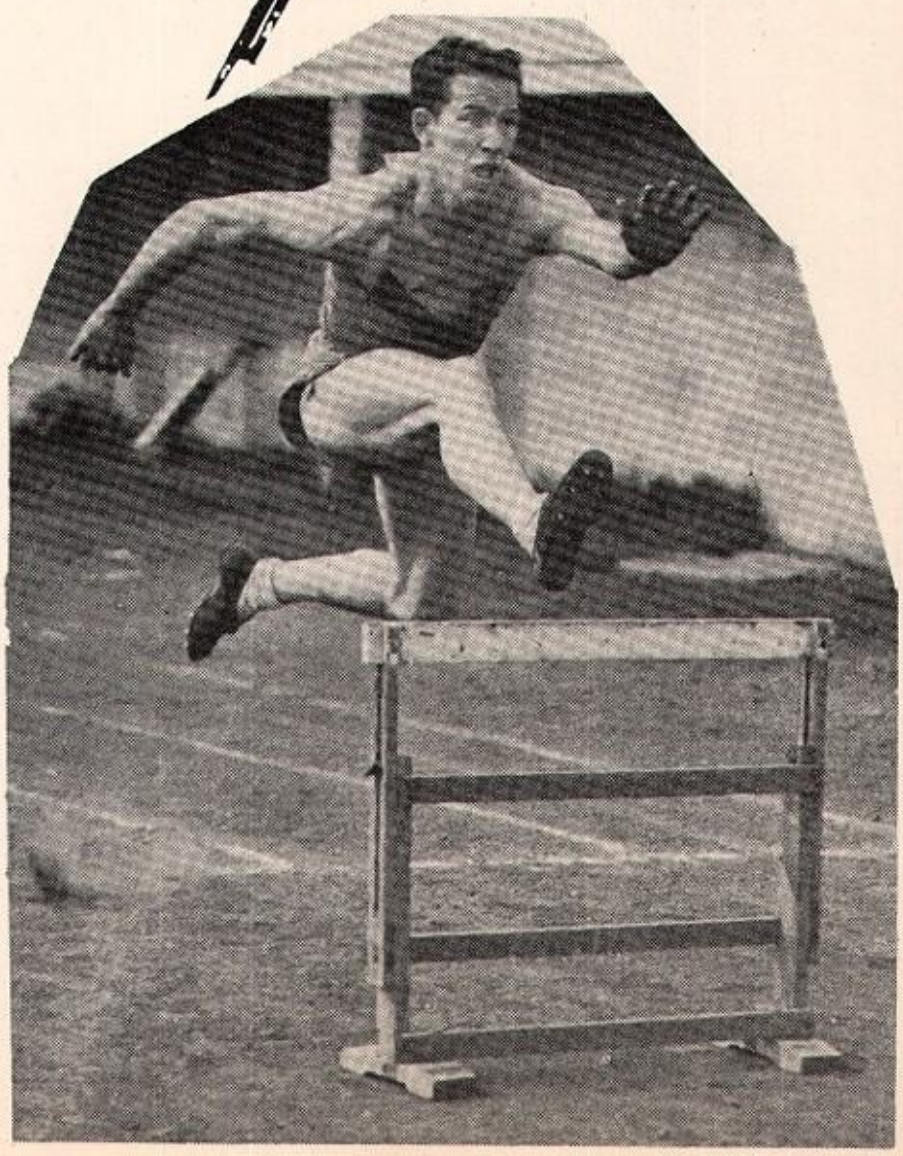
Moving to Klamath Falls for a dual meet, the Bend tracksters were stomped by the Pelicans by a score of 80-42. Klamath Falls grabbed 10 of the 14 first places, leaving the Bears only four. Bill Sheffold took first in the pole vault and low hurdles. Don Bushnell won the 880 and George Mansfield the discus.

The Lava Bears hit their top form as they won the Big Six track meet in Corvallis for the third time in three years. Bend racked up 50 9/10 points to nose out the second place Salem by a comfortable margin. Sheffold set a new low hurdles mark with a time of 24 seconds flat. Sheffold also nabbed a win in the pole vault, Don Bushnell won the half mile, and Vern Clark got a first in the mile. Bend took the Central Oregon championship in a meet in which seven meet records were shattered. The Bears scored 91 points to 71½ for second place Redmond. Winners for Bend were: Bob Brown, 440 :54.4 (new meet record); Sheffold, low hurdles :24.4 (new meet record); Larry Standifer, high hurdles :16.7 Sheffold, pole vault, 10 ft., 3 in.; Babe Maudlin, broad jump, 21 ft., 1½ in (new meet record); Standifer, high jump, 5 ft., 6 in.; Sheffold, McCuen, Mansfield and K. Brown, 880 yd. relay 1:39.2 (tied old record).

In the District 2 meet in Bend, which the Bears won to qualify 12 men fo the State track meet, Sheffold and B. Brown took first and second in the pol vault, to qualify for state. B. Brown and Denning ran 1, 2 in the 440 and Clarl and Bradetich ran 1, 2 in the mile. Other men to qualify were: Babe Maudlin broad jump; Don Bushnell, half mile; Ted McKee, 220; Larry Standifer, higl jump and high hurdles; A. Brown, 100; and the relay team composed of Shef fold, Symons, Mansfield, and K. Brown.

At the State meet in Corvallis Bend competed in seven events but was onl able to place 13th with 5½ points, all garnered by Bill Sheffold. Sheffold mad up the total by gaining a second in the low hurdles and tieing for fourth in th pole vault.

The Bend track squad of '48, although inconsistent, was a fine bunch of me and was always a tough competitor.



WINTER SPORTS

This year's winter sports activities have been among the most successful ever witnessed by the students of Bend High.

The leader in this winter's sports activities, as in the past five years, has been Phil Gillis. Phil is Bend High's number one competitive skier, taking almost all first places in all of the meets in which he has competed. Bend High's second place skier is Don Simerville. He has been a very consistent winner throughout the year. Other skiers who should be mentioned, not only for their racing but also for their general skiing ability are Larry Sullivan, Jack Symons, Bob Brown, Henry Herbring, Dick Rasmussen, Eldon Bushnell, John Drew, Dave Rasmussen, Marcia Skjersaa, Clara Skjersaa, Margie Peak, and Sally Slate.

This year the Bend students also had included in their winter sports agenda as a major sport, ice skating. This is due to the installation of Symons Lake in the Troy Laundry field by Myron Symons; however, as yet the outstanding skaters can't be pointed out.

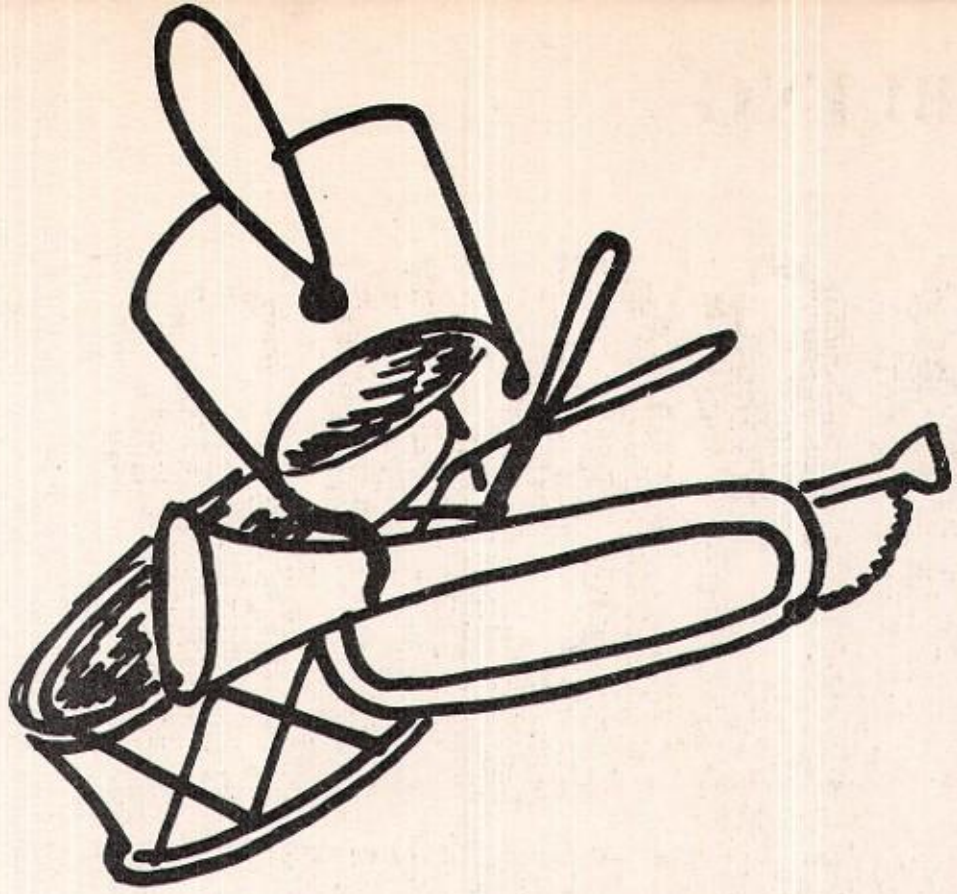
DRUM and BUGLE CORPS



After being re-established four years ago the Drum and Bugle Corps fast achieved the fame it had in pre-war days. The performance of this well-trained corps brightened several Bend football and basketball games this year. The girls also traveled to Salem where they gave a snappy half-time drill.

Other activities were marching at the fall and spring opening, taking part in an assembly, and sponsoring several dances during the year.
